Matthew 1 provides an account of the genealogy and birth of Jesus Christ. This chapter begins with a lineage tracing from Abraham to David, from David to the Babylonian exile, and from the exile to Jesus. It also details how Mary, though a virgin, became pregnant by the Holy Spirit, and gave birth to Jesus.

1st Paragraph: The chapter starts with a genealogy that traces 42 generations from Abraham through King David to Jesus Christ. Each segment is divided into fourteen generations: from Abraham to David; from David until the exile in Babylon; and from that point until Christ's birth (Matthew 1:1-17). This lineage establishes Jesus as a rightful heir in both Abrahamic and Davidic lines.

2nd Paragraph: The next part (Matthew 1:18-25) tells about Mary's miraculous conception. Despite being betrothed to Joseph, she becomes pregnant through the Holy Spirit. Joseph initially contemplates divorcing her quietly but an angel appears in his dream explaining that Mary's child is conceived by the Holy Spirit and will save people from their sins.

3rd Paragraph: In this final section, Joseph obeys God's command conveyed through the angelic vision by taking Mary as his wife without consummating their marriage until she gives birth. As instructed by the angel, they name their son 'Jesus'. His name signifies "he will save his people from their sins", fulfilling Old Testament prophecies concerning a coming Savior.

Matthew 3 introduces the character and ministry of John the Baptist, his message of repentance, and the baptism of Jesus Christ. This chapter depicts John as a forerunner to Jesus, preparing people for His coming by preaching repentance and baptizing them in the Jordan River.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with John the Baptist appearing in Judea's wilderness preaching a message of repentance because "the kingdom of heaven has come near". He 2nd Paragraph: In this part (Matthew 3:7-12), John rebukes Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism. He challenges their presumption of righteousness based on ancestral lineage to Abraham, instead emphasizing genuine repentance that produces good fruit. He also predicts that one mightier than him will come who will baptize with Holy Spirit and fire.

3rd Paragraph: The final section (Matthew 3:13-17) presents Jesus coming from Galilee to Jordan to be baptized by John. Initially reluctant because he considers Jesus superior than him, John agrees upon Jesus's insistence. As soon as Jesus is baptized, heavens open up revealing Spirit of God descending like a dove on Him while a voice from heaven declares Him as God’s beloved Son.

Matthew 5 is the start of the Sermon on the Mount, which is one of Jesus' most significant teachings. This chapter introduces the Beatitudes, discusses fulfilling the Law, and provides new interpretations for traditional teachings on murder, adultery, divorce, oaths, retaliation, and love for enemies.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus delivering the Beatitudes - a series of blessings to those who embody certain virtues such as meekness and mercy. These statements emphasize spiritual values over worldly values. In this section (Matthew 5:1-12), Jesus also encourages his followers to rejoice in persecution because their reward will be great in heaven.

2nd Paragraph: Moving forward (Matthew 5:13-32), Jesus teaches about being "salt of the earth" and "light of the world", emphasizing that his followers should influence others positively and that they should not hide their faith but let it shine for all to see. He then discusses how he has come not to abolish but fulfill the Law and Prophets. He reinterprets laws concerning murder (anger), adultery (lustful intent), divorce (unlawfulness except on grounds of sexual immorality) providing a deeper understanding beyond literal adherence.

3rd Paragraph: In Matthew 5:33-48, Jesus continues by advising against making false oaths; instead encouraging honesty without swearing by anything. He then instructs to turn another cheek when struck and love your enemies as opposed to seeking an eye for an eye revenge. This promotes forgiveness over retaliation while loving your enemies serves as a challenge to extend love beyond personal circles reflecting God's unconditional love.

When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life.

Matthew 5:28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

Whosoever looks upon a woman lustfully has committed adultery in their heart.

2. 1 Corinthians 6:18-19 - Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a person commits are outside the body, but whoever sins sexually, sins against their own body. So then, if while her husband is living she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress though she is joined to another man.”

Matthew 5:32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

Jesus says that if a man divorces his wife, except for the cause of fornication, it causes her to commit adultery. Additionally, if the woman is remarried, the man who marries her commits adultery.

This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that God’s wrath will not fall on us for breaking the oath we swore to them.’”

“If your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink. In doing this, you will heap burning coals on his head.” Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

2. Colossians 3:12-14 - Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

Matthew 5:46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

This verse teaches us that we should not only love people who love us, but also those who do not love us.

1: We can show God's love to others by loving those who may not love us in return.

2: We should extend our love to those who do not show us love, as Jesus did.

1: Luke 6:31-32 - "Do to others as you would have them do to you. If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even 'sinners' love those who love them."

Matthew 6 is part of the Sermon on the Mount and it covers three broad themes: acts of righteousness, including giving to the needy, prayer (including the Lord's Prayer), and fasting; a warning against storing earthly treasures; and an admonition not to worry.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus instructing His followers on how to conduct acts of righteousness. He warns against practicing piety in public for others' admiration. Whether it's giving to the needy or praying or fasting, these should be done privately, for God sees what is done in secret and rewards accordingly. This section includes Jesus teaching His disciples how they should pray - known as "The Lord's Prayer" (Matthew 6:1-18).

2nd Paragraph: Next, Jesus speaks about material possessions (Matthew 6:19-24). He cautions against storing up treasures on earth where they can be destroyed or stolen. Instead, He encourages His followers to store up treasures in heaven which are eternal. He also teaches that no one can serve two masters - God and money.

3rd Paragraph: In the final section (Matthew 6:25-34), Jesus advises against worry about life’s necessities like food and clothing because God knows all needs and provides for them just as he does for birds of air and lilies of field. Instead of worrying about worldly matters, one should seek first God’s kingdom and his righteousness with a promise that everything else will be given as well.

Matthew 6:1 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

Do not be ostentatious with your good deeds, as only God will reward you.

1. Generosity in Secret: Using God's Reward as Our Motivation

2. The Blessing of Obedience: Doing Good Without Seeking Praise

1. 1 Timothy 6:17-19 – “Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.”

2. Proverbs 11:25 – “Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered.”

Matthew 6:2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

Jesus warns against doing good works for the purpose of gaining human recognition, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets.

1. Doing Good Works for the Right Reasons

2. The Danger of Pride in Our Good Works

1. Proverbs 28:25-26 He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the Lord shall be made fat. He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered.

2. Philippians 2:3-4 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Matthew 6:4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

We should give to others in secret, knowing that God will reward us openly.

2. The Blessing of Generosity: Giving to Others as God Gives to Us

Matthew 6:5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

Jesus warns against praying in order to be seen by others, as hypocrites do, since their reward is already received.

1. James 4:6 - "But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble."

Jesus commands us to pray to God in secret and God will reward us openly.

1. God sees everything we do and will reward us for private acts of faith.

2. Psalm 34:17-19 – When the righteous cry for help, the Lord hears and delivers them out of all their troubles. The Lord is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the Lord delivers him out of them all.

Matthew 6:7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

Prayer should be sincere and not full of vain repetitions.

1: God desires heartfelt, honest prayers from us and not empty words.

God knows our needs before we even ask, so we should not worry.

Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God,” for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death.”

1. Isaiah 58:6-7 - "Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?".

2. Matthew 5:6 - "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled."

Matthew 6:18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

Jesus teaches that fasting should be done in secret, and that God will reward those who do.

Matthew 6:22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

The eye serves as a metaphor for one's focus, and having a single eye implies that one's focus is on God, which will bring fullness of light.

1: Seek God's light through a single-minded focus.

2: Put God first and your life will be full of light.

1: Proverbs 4:18-19 “But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day. The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble.”

2: Psalm 119:105 “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.”

Matthew 6:23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

Jesus warns of the dangers of allowing our hearts to become dark, as this will darken our entire being.

2. The Danger of Darkness: Avoiding the Temptations of an Evil Eye

1. Ephesians 5:8-10 - "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light, for light produces every kind of goodness and righteousness and truth. Try to learn what pleases the Lord."

2. John 12:35-36 - "Then Jesus told them, “You are going to have the light just a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, before darkness overtakes you. Whoever walks in the dark does not know where they are going. Put your trust in the light while you have it, so that you may become children of light.”

Matthew 6:24 No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Jesus teaches us that it is not possible to serve two masters because we will ultimately end up loving one and hating the other.

Matthew 6:25 Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

Jesus teaches us to not worry about our life and physical needs because our life is more important than food and clothes.

Matthew 6:29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Matthew 6:30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

God cares for us and provides for all of our needs.

1: God is All-Providing and All-Caring

2: Have Faith in the Lord's Provision

1: Jeremiah 29:11-13 "For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. 2: Philippians 4:19 "And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus."

Matthew 6:31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

The passage encourages not worrying about what we will eat, drink, or wear.

1: We should not worry about our needs, because God will provide.

2: We can trust in the Lord to provide for our needs.

1: Philippians 4:19 - "And my God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus."

2: Matthew 6:25-26 - "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes?"

Matthew 6:32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

God knows our needs and wants us to trust Him to provide for us, rather than seeking worldly things.

2. "The Heart of Contentment: Putting God First"

1. Philippians 4:12-13 - "I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want."

2. 1 John 2:15-17 - "Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them. For everything in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—comes not from the Father but from the world. The world and its desires pass away, but whoever does the will of God lives forever."

Matthew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

Seek God first and He will provide for all our needs.

1. Seek God and He will Supply - Matthew 6:33

2. Rely on God for Provision - Matthew 6:33

1. Philippians 4:19 - And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

2. Psalm 37:25 - I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken or his children begging for bread.

Matthew 6:34 Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Do not worry about tomorrow; focus on today and its challenges.

1: Live in the Moment - Place your trust in God and take each day one step at a time.

2: Don't Worry, Be Happy - Rely on the Lord and leave tomorrow's worries to tomorrow.

1: Philippians 4:6-7 - Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

2: 1 Peter 5:7 - Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

Matthew 7 concludes the Sermon on the Mount, with Jesus discussing judgment, asking God for help, the path to heaven, and the importance of putting His words into practice.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus instructing his followers not to judge others hypocritically. He uses the metaphor of seeing a speck in someone else's eye while ignoring a plank in one's own eye. Instead of judging others harshly, one should first examine oneself (Matthew 7:1-5). He also warns about giving sacred things to those who can't appreciate them (Matthew 7:6).

2nd Paragraph: Next, Jesus encourages his followers to ask God for what they need, promising that their requests will be answered. He introduces the Golden Rule - treating others as you would want them to treat you - which sums up the Law and Prophets (Matthew 7:7-12). Then he describes two paths: a narrow gate leading to life which few find and a wide gate leading to destruction which many take (Matthew 7:13-14).

3rd Paragraph: In this final section (Matthew 7:15-29), Jesus warns about false prophets who appear harmless but are inwardly harmful. By their fruits or actions shall they be recognized. He then emphasizes that not everyone who calls Him Lord will enter heaven but only those who do God's will. The chapter ends with a parable contrasting wise and foolish builders; those who hear His teachings and put them into practice are like wise builders whose house stands firm during storms while those who don't are like foolish builders whose house falls down when storm comes.

Matthew 7:1 Judge not, that ye be not judged.

This passage is a reminder to not judge others as God will be the ultimate judge.

1. The Power of Grace: How We Can Love Without Judging

2. The Heart of Forgiveness: Letting Go of Judgement

1. James 4:12 - There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy.

2. Romans 14:10-13 - You, then, why do you judge your brother or why do you look down on your brother? For we will all stand before God’s judgment seat.

Matthew 7:2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

Judging others will result in being judged in the same manner.

1: “Think twice before you judge”

2: “Treat others as you wish to be treated”

1: Luke 6:37 - “Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven.”

2: James 4:11-12 - “Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?”

Matthew 7:3 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Be aware of your own faults before judging others.

1: Be humble and look inside yourself before judging others.

2: Put away pride and seek God's help in understanding why we judge.

1: James 4:11-12 "Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

2: Galatians 6:1-2 "Brothers, if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ."

Matthew 7:4 Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine own eye?

Christ warns against judging others when we have a greater problem.

1: We must focus on our own faults and sins before we point out those of others.

2: We should recognize that we are all sinners, and be humble in our judgments.

1: Romans 3:10-12 - "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one."

2: James 4:11-12 - "Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?"

Matthew 7:5 Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

We should not judge others until we have first judged ourselves.

2. Seeing Clearly: Being Humble and Loving Our Brothers and Sisters

1. James 4:11-12 - “Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge.

2. Romans 12:3 - “For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned.”

Matthew 7:6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

Do not give away your sacred things to those who do not value them, or show them to those who will not appreciate them, as it may lead to them causing you harm.

1. Do not waste your blessings on those who will not appreciate them.

God grants us what we ask for if we seek it.

1: We must be prayerful and persistent in our requests to God, and He will answer us according to His will.

2: Faith is about trusting in God to give us what we need, even if it's not what we want.

1: James 4:2-3 - You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

2: Philippians 4:6-7 - Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Matthew 7:9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

2. Few Will Find It - The Challenges of the Christian Walk

1. Matthew 19:23-24 - Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I tell you, it is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God."

2. "Focus on Obedience, Not Just Lip Service"

1. James 2:14-17 - "What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

2. Romans 2:13 - For not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified.

Matthew 7:22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

Matthew 8 presents several miracles performed by Jesus, demonstrating His authority over disease, nature, and the spiritual realm. It also highlights the cost of discipleship.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus healing a man with leprosy who approaches

Him in faith (Matthew 8:1-4). Following this, He heals a Roman centurion's servant from a distance just through His word. This event leads to Jesus praising the centurion's great faith (Matthew 8:5-13). Then He goes on to heal Peter's mother-in-law and many others who were demon-possessed or sick (Matthew 8:14-17).

2nd Paragraph: In Matthew 8:18-22, Jesus has interactions with potential disciples. When one man says he will follow Him wherever He goes, Jesus warns about the hardships that come with discipleship - even having no place to lay His head. To another who asks for time to bury his father before following Him, Jesus responds that he should let the dead bury their own dead; his duty is to follow and proclaim God’s kingdom.

3rd Paragraph: The last section (Matthew 8:23-34) presents two more miracles where Jesus shows His authority over nature and demons. First, He calms a storm on sea by rebuking wind and waves demonstrating His power over natural elements (Matthew 8:23-27). Then in Gadarenes territory, He drives out demons from two men into a herd of pigs which rush down steep bank into water and die. This frightens townspeople leading them to request Him to leave their region.

2. Mark 10:45-46 - For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.

Matthew 9 continues to recount the miracles of Jesus, demonstrating His authority to forgive sins, heal the sick, and raise the dead. It also discusses His mission to call sinners and the need for workers in God's harvest.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus healing a paralyzed man after declaring his sins forgiven, illustrating His authority over both physical ailment and spiritual forgiveness (Matthew 9:1-8). He then calls Matthew, a tax collector, to follow Him. This leads to a meal with other tax collectors and sinners where Jesus clarifies that He has come not for the righteous but for sinners (Matthew 9:9-13).

2nd Paragraph: Next are three more miracles performed by Jesus - healing of a woman who had been bleeding for twelve years just by her touching his cloak in faith (Matthew 9:20-22), raising Jairus’s daughter from death (Matthew 9:23-26), and restoring sight to two blind men who acknowledge Him as Son of David affirming their faith in Him as Messiah (Matthew 9:27-31). He also drives out a demon from a mute man enabling him to speak again which astonishes crowd but elicits accusation from Pharisees that he is using power of prince of demons (Matthew 9:32-34).

3rd Paragraph: In this final section (Matthew 9:35-38), Jesus continues teaching and healing throughout towns and villages. Seeing crowds as harassed and helpless like sheep without shepherd makes Him compassionate towards them. He concludes by telling His disciples that while harvest is plentiful, workers are few; they should therefore pray for Lord of harvest i.e., God Himself, to send out workers into His field.

Matthew 10 details the commissioning of the twelve apostles, their mission instructions, and the cost of following Jesus.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus giving His twelve disciples authority to drive out impure spirits and heal every disease and sickness (Matthew 10:1-4). These disciples are then named as apostles.

2nd Paragraph: In Matthew 10:5-15, Jesus instructs them on their mission - they are to go only to the lost sheep of Israel and proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is near. They are also given power to heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, and cast out demons. They are not to take money or extra clothing for their journey but rely on local hospitality for sustenance. If a town does not welcome them or listen to their message, they should shake off its dust from their feet when leaving.

3rd Paragraph: The final section (Matthew 10:16-42) warns about forthcoming persecutions but encourages them not to fear because God will be with them. Matthew 11 records Jesus' response to John the Baptist's doubts, His criticism of unrepentant cities, and His invitation to find rest in Him.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with John the Baptist, now in prison, sending his disciples to Jesus to confirm if He is indeed the Messiah (Matthew 11:1-6). Jesus responds by pointing out the miracles He has performed as evidence of His messianic identity. After John's disciples leave, Jesus praises John as a prophet and more than a prophet - the one who prepares way for Him. Yet he also says that least in kingdom of heaven is greater than John (Matthew 11:7-15).

2nd Paragraph: Next, Jesus criticizes cities where most of His miracles were performed but they did not repent - Chorazin, Bethsaida and Capernaum (Matthew 11:20-24). He compares them unfavorably with Tyre, Sidon and Sodom which would have repented had they seen such miracles. This highlights their hardness of heart despite witnessing signs of God's kingdom.

3rd Paragraph: In this final section (Matthew 11:25-30), Jesus offers a prayer thanking God for revealing truths about Himself and kingdom not to wise and learned but to little children i.e., those who are humble before God. Then He invites all who are weary and burdened to come to Him for rest. For His yoke is easy and burden light indicating that following Him brings relief from burdens imposed by religious legalism.

Matthew 12 presents conflicts between Jesus and the Pharisees over Sabbath observance, His identification of Himself as greater than the temple and Jonah, and His teaching on true kinship.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Pharisees accusing Jesus' disciples of breaking the Sabbath law by plucking grain to eat (Matthew 12:1-8). Jesus defends them, stating that human need takes precedence over ritual law. He declares Himself as "Lord of the Sabbath," asserting His authority over religious traditions. Another Sabbath controversy arises when He heals a man with a shriveled hand in synagogue (Matthew 12:9-14). Despite Pharisees' objection, Jesus argues doing good is lawful on Sabbath.

2nd Paragraph: After performing more healings, including restoring sight and speech to a demon-possessed man, Jesus faces accusations from Pharisees that He is using power of Beelzebul (Satan) for His miracles (Matthew 12:22-37). Rejecting this claim, He points out that a kingdom divided against itself cannot stand; thus it's illogical to suggest Satan would empower Him to drive out demons. He further warns about blasphemy against Holy Spirit which will not be forgiven - attributing God’s work to Satan. When asked for sign by some scribes and Pharisees, he refers to Jonah’s three days in fish's belly prophetic of his own death and resurrection – “sign of Jonah”.

3rd Paragraph: In this final section (Matthew 12:38-50), Jesus describes generation seeking signs as evil and adulterous indicating their unfaithfulness towards God despite evidence already provided through His ministry. Then upon being told his mother and brothers are waiting outside wanting to speak with Him, He redefines family not based on biological relationship but on doing God's will.

Matthew 12:1 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with the Parable of the Sower (Matthew 13:1-9), where seed sown on different types of ground represents various responses to God's word. When His disciples ask Him about His use of parables, Jesus explains that He uses them to reveal truths to those who are open and hide them from those who are not (Matthew 13:10-17). He then interprets the Parable of the Sower for His disciples (Matthew 13:18-23).

2nd Paragraph: Jesus shares more parables about the kingdom - The Parable of Weeds among Wheat explaining coexistence of good and evil until end times when God will separate them (Matthew 13:24-30), The Parables of Mustard Seed and Yeast emphasizing how kingdom starts small but grows significantly (Matthew 13:31-33). After telling these parables, Jesus explains privately to His disciples the meaning behind Parable of Weeds (Matthew 13:36-43).

3rd Paragraph: In this final section, Jesus tells three more short parables – Hidden Treasure, Pearl Merchant and Fishing Net - all emphasizing immense value of kingdom and how it demands total commitment from those who seek it (Matthew 13:44-50). When

So let each one give as he purposes in his heart, not grudgingly or of necessity; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you, that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may have an abundance for every good work."

2: John 4:35-38 - "Do you not say, ‘There are still four months and then comes the harvest’? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! And he who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. For in this the saying is true: ‘One sows and another reaps.’ I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labors.”

Matthew 13:10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

The disciples asked Jesus why he was speaking to the people in parables.

Matthew 13:15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

The prophets and righteous men of the past longed to experience the blessings that the current generation has been given.

1: Let us be thankful for the privileges we have been given and use them to glorify God.

2: We should strive to live lives of righteousness so that we experience the same blessings as the prophets and righteous men of the past.

Matthew 13:18 Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

The parable of the sower is a lesson about the importance of understanding God's word.

1: The Sower and the Seed: What the Parable of the Sower Teaches Us about God's Word

2: The Power of Parables: How Parables Can Help Us Understand God's Word

1: Isaiah 55:10-11 - “For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven and do not return there but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater, so shall my word be that goes out from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I purpose, and shall succeed in the thing for which I sent it.

2: 2 Timothy 3:16-17 - “All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be competent, equipped for every good work.”

Matthew 13:19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

Rootlessness leads to fickleness in the face of hardship.

1: Persevere in Faith despite Persecution

2: The Necessity of Having a Firm Foundation in Christ

1: Romans 5:3-5 "Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope. And hope does not put us to shame, because God’s love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us."

2: James 1:2-4 "Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything."

Matthew 13:22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

The care of the world and deceitfulness of riches can choke the word of God and render it unfruitful.

1: We need to focus on God, not worldly possessions, to be truly fruitful.

2: The love of money can be a hindrance to hearing God's word.

1: Luke 12:15 - "And He said to them, “Take heed and beware of covetousness, for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses.”

2: 1 Timothy 6:10 - “For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some have strayed from the faith in their greediness, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.”

Matthew 13:23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

The parable of the sower illustrates that those who hear the word of God and understand it will bear much fruit.

Jesus told a parable of a man who sowed good seed in his field to illustrate the Kingdom of Heaven.

1. Galatians 6:7-8 - "Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life."

2. Matthew 7:15-20 - "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves. You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit. A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Thus you will recognize them by their fruits."

Matthew 13:25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

The enemy of God's people sowed tares among the wheat while people were asleep.

The master of a household notices that weeds have been planted in his wheat field. His servants ask if they should go and remove the weeds, but the master tells them an enemy has done this.

1. The enemy of our soul seeks to sow weeds of doubt and fear in our lives.

2. We can never truly ignore the work of the enemy, but instead must be vigilant and remain focused on God's plan for our lives.

Matthew 14 is the fourteenth chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, which includes significant events such as the death of John the Baptist, Jesus feeding the five thousand, and Jesus walking on water.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with the account of Herod's reaction to Jesus' ministry and his mistaken belief that Jesus was John the Baptist raised from the dead (Matthew 14:1-12). Herod had imprisoned John due to his condemnation of Herod's unlawful marriage. However, during a birthday celebration, Herod made a rash promise to grant any request made by his stepdaughter. Prompted by her mother, she asked for John's head on a platter. Reluctantly, Herod fulfilled her request and had John executed.

2nd Paragraph: The narrative then shifts to Jesus feeding a large crowd with just five loaves of bread and two fish (Matthew 14:13-21). When Jesus learned about John's death, He withdrew to a solitary place. However, multitudes followed Him on foot. Seeing their need for food, Jesus had compassion on them and miraculously multiplied the loaves and fish to feed around five thousand men plus women and children. After everyone was satisfied, twelve baskets full of leftovers were collected.

3rd Paragraph: The chapter concludes with an extraordinary event where Jesus walks on water (Matthew 14:22-36). While His disciples were crossing the Sea of Galilee in a boat during a stormy night, they saw what they thought was a ghost walking toward them. But it was actually Jesus who reassured them not to be afraid. Peter requested permission to walk on water too but began sinking when he doubted. Jesus rescued him and calmed the storm as they reached their destination in Gennesaret. Upon arrival, many people recognized Him as "the Son of God" and brought their sick for healing.

In summary,

Chapter fourteen of Matthew recounts the death of John the Baptist at the hands of Herod, followed by Jesus' miraculous feeding of the five thousand with a few loaves and fish.

It demonstrates His willingness to provide for physical needs and offers reassurance in times of fear. This chapter showcases both Jesus' humanity and His divine attributes as people recognize Him as "the Son of God" and seek healing from Him.

Matthew 15 presents Jesus' teachings on true purity, His healing miracles, and the feeding of the four thousand.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Pharisees and teachers of the law accusing Jesus' disciples of breaking tradition by not washing their hands before eating (Matthew 15:1-2). Jesus counters them, criticizing their hypocrisy as they themselves break God's commandments for sake of tradition. He teaches that what defiles a person is not what goes into mouth but what comes out from heart - indicating moral impurity is more serious than ritual impurity (Matthew 15:10-20).

2nd Paragraph: Leaving Galilee for region of Tyre and Sidon, Jesus encounters a Canaanite woman who pleads for her demon-possessed daughter's healing (Matthew 15:21-28). Initially, Jesus responds that He was sent only to lost sheep of Israel. But moved by her faith expressed in persistent pleading and recognition of Him as Lord, He grants her request.

3rd Paragraph: Returning to Sea of Galilee, Jesus heals many people who are brought to Him - lame, blind, mute etc., causing crowd to marvel (Matthew 15:29-31). Finally in this chapter is miracle of feeding four thousand men besides women and children with seven loaves and few small fish (Matthew 15:32-39). Like earlier feeding five thousand miracle this too underscores His compassion towards needy and His divine power.

This verse emphasizes that it's not what we consume that makes us impure, but what we say and how we act.

1: Our words have power. We must use them carefully and wisely.

2: We can't rely on external forces to make us holy; it's our inner thoughts and actions that matter.

1: James 3:8-10 - The tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark.

2: Ephesians 4:29 - Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear.

1: God Wants Our Heart

God desires our hearts first and foremost in worship. When we come before Him, our hearts should be the most important offering we give.

Matthew 16 presents Jesus' warnings about the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees, Peter's confession of Jesus as the Messiah, and Jesus' prediction of His death and resurrection.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Pharisees and Sadducees testing Jesus by asking Him to show them a sign from heaven (Matthew 16:1-4). He rebukes them for their inability to interpret spiritual signs despite being able to interpret weather patterns. He tells them that no sign will be given except the "sign of Jonah," referring to His upcoming death and resurrection. Later, He warns His disciples about the leaven (teaching) of Pharisees and Sadducees which they understand as a warning against their doctrine.

2nd Paragraph: When asked about who people say He is, disciples give various answers – John the Baptist, Elijah or one of prophets. But when asked who they think He is, Peter confesses that Jesus is "the Christ, Son of living God" (Matthew 16:13-20). In response to this revelation given by Father in heaven not by flesh and blood, Jesus declares Peter blessed and upon this rock (Peter’s faith or his confession) He will build His church which gates of Hades will not overcome.

3rd Paragraph: After this high point comes first explicit prediction of His suffering - that he must go to Jerusalem where he will suffer many things at hands of elders chief priests scribes be killed but on third day raised up (Matthew 16:21-28). When Peter tries to dissuade Him from such path, Jesus sternly rebukes him for setting mind on human things rather than divine things. Then teaching about costliness yet worthiness following Him He states whoever wants save life will lose it but loses life for his sake find it

2. The Authority of Jesus: How His Teaching Challenged the Religious Leaders

1. Luke 4:31-32 - Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth

2. Mark 11:27-33 - Jesus' Authority Challenged in the Temple

Matthew 22 is the twenty-second chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, which contains several parables and teachings by Jesus. In this chapter, Jesus engages in debates with religious leaders, addresses questions about paying taxes, and delivers the parable of the wedding feast.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with a parable known as the wedding feast or the parable of the king's son (Matthew 22:1-14). Jesus compares the kingdom of heaven to a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son but found that those invited refused to come. The king then invites others from all walks of life to fill his banquet hall. However, one guest who did not have proper attire is cast out into outer darkness. This parable illustrates God's invitation to salvation and emphasizes that many who were initially chosen may reject it while others accept it.

2nd Paragraph: Religious leaders attempt to trap Jesus with questions about paying taxes (Matthew 22:15-22). They ask whether it is lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not. In response, Jesus astutely asks for a coin and declares that rendering to Caesar what belongs to him and giving to God what belongs to Him is appropriate. His answer avoids entrapment while highlighting both civic responsibility and spiritual devotion.

3rd Paragraph: Another group of religious leaders—the Sadducees—approach Jesus with a question about marriage in the resurrection (Matthew 22:23-33). They present a hypothetical scenario involving seven brothers who sequentially marry one woman due to levirate marriage customs. The Sadducees ask whose wife she will be in heaven. Jesus responds by explaining that marriage does not exist in heaven but affirms the reality of resurrection by referencing God's words at the burning bush when He identified Himself as "the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." This encounter demonstrates Jesus' authority over theological matters and His ability to refute false beliefs.

In summary,

Chapter twenty-two of Matthew features the parable of the wedding feast, illustrating God's invitation to salvation and the acceptance or rejection of that invitation.

Jesus engages in debates with religious leaders regarding paying taxes and addresses questions about marriage in the resurrection.

The chapter highlights Jesus' wisdom, his ability to navigate challenging situations, and his authority over theological matters. It emphasizes the importance of accepting God's invitation to salvation and living with a proper understanding of both civic responsibility and spiritual devotion.

But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. Matthew 27 is the twenty-seventh chapter of the Gospel of Matthew, which focuses on the events leading up to and including Jesus' crucifixion, death, and burial.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with the betrayal and trial of Jesus (Matthew 27:1-26). Judas Iscariot, one of Jesus' disciples, regrets his betrayal and returns the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests. Overwhelmed by guilt, Judas hangs himself. Meanwhile, Jesus is brought before Pilate, the Roman governor. Despite finding no fault in Him, Pilate succumbs to pressure from the crowd and releases Barabbas—a notorious criminal—instead of Jesus. Pilate then orders Jesus to be flogged and handed over for crucifixion.

2nd Paragraph: The soldiers mock and abuse Jesus before leading Him to Golgotha for crucifixion (Matthew 27:27-44). They dress Him in a scarlet robe and crown Him with thorns while taunting Him as King of the Jews. Alongside two criminals, Jesus is nailed to a cross between them. Passersby join in mocking Him while religious leaders challenge His claims about being able to save Himself. Darkness falls over the land from noon until three in the afternoon.

3rd Paragraph: As Jesus breathes His last breath on the cross (Matthew 27:45-66), an earthquake occurs, tombs open up, and some dead saints are resurrected. A centurion confesses that truly "this was the Son of God." Joseph of Arimathea—a disciple secretly following Jesus—boldly requests permission from Pilate to take charge of Jesus' body for burial. Joseph wraps it in clean linen cloth and places it in his own new tomb carved out of rock while Mary Magdalene and another Mary observe.

Later at Levi's house during a meal with many tax collectors and sinners, Pharisees question why He eats with such people. Jesus responds that it is not healthy who need doctor but sick came not call righteous but sinners (Mark 2:13-17). Later John's disciples Pharisees are fasting people ask why John's disciples Pharisees fast but His disciples do not. He explains using metaphors new wine old wineskins bridegroom wedding guests suggesting that His presence ushers in new era rendering old practices like fasting inappropriate for time being (Mark 2:18-22).

In second instance at synagogue there is man with shriveled hand whom He heals on Sabbath despite watching Pharisees looking for reason accuse Him. This leads Pharisees go out immediately plot Herodians how they might kill Him showing escalating tension between Jesus religious authorities.

Mark 4 features Jesus teaching in parables, including the Parable of the Sower, the Parable of the Lamp, and the Parable of the Mustard Seed. It also records a miracle where Jesus calms a storm.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus teaching a large crowd by the lake using parables. In "The Parable of Sower", He describes a farmer who sows seed on different types soil representing various responses to God's word (Mark 4:1-9). When alone with His disciples and those around Him, He explains meaning of parable saying seed is word God and four types soil represent four responses to it - those along path where word is sown but Satan comes takes away word sown in them, others like seed sown on rocky places hear word at once receive it with joy but since they have no root last only short time when trouble persecution comes because of word quickly fall away, others like seed sown among thorns hear word worries life deceitfulness wealth desires other things come in choke making it unfruitful finally others like seed sown good soil hear word accept produce crop multiplying thirty sixty even hundred times (Mark 4:10-20).

2nd Paragraph: Then follows "The Parable of Lamp" which emphasizes that nothing hidden will remain so lamp not brought be hidden under bowl or bed instead put on stand for whatever is hidden meant be disclosed whatever concealed meant come out into open (Mark 4:21-25). This followed by "The Parable Mustard Seed" smallest all seeds ground yet when planted grows becomes largest all garden plants with such big branches birds can perch shade its branches illustrating how kingdom God starts small grows exponentially (Mark 4:26-34). All these teachings are given in form parables as per people's understanding while explanations are given privately to His disciples.

3rd Paragraph: The chapter concludes with an account where Jesus calms storm. As they cross lake in boat violent storm arises causing waves break over boat nearly swamping it. While disciples panic fearing for their lives, Jesus sleeps on cushion at stern. They wake Him up asking Him if He doesn't care if they drown. After rebuking wind telling waves "Quiet! Be still!" causing wind die down completely calm sea says them "Why are you so afraid? Do you still have no faith?" leaving disciples terrified asking each other who this man even wind waves obey him demonstrating his authority over natural elements (Mark 4:35-41).

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus teaching in His hometown synagogue. However, He is met with skepticism and disbelief from locals who know Him and His family. They take offense at Him because they cannot reconcile their knowledge of His humble beginnings with His wisdom and miraculous deeds (Mark 6:1-3). This leads Jesus to remark that "A prophet is not without honor except in his own town among his relatives in his own home" (Mark 6:4). Because of their unbelief, He could not do any miracles there except lay hands on few sick people heal them (Mark 6:5-6).

2nd Paragraph: Next, Jesus sends out twelve disciples two by two giving them authority over impure spirits. They are instructed to take nothing for journey except staff no bread no bag no money belts wear sandals not put on extra shirt. They are also told to find worthy house stay until they leave town shake dust off feet as testimony against those who do not welcome them or listen to them (Mark 6:7-11). The disciples go out preach people repent cast out many demons anoint many sick people oil heal them (Mark 6:12-13). Meanwhile Herod hears about Jesus thinks John Baptist whom he beheaded has been raised dead explains flashback how Herodias held grudge against John had him arrested wanted kill him but could not because Herod feared John protected him knowing him righteous holy man enjoyed listening him though he was greatly puzzled yet liked listen him. Opportunity arises when Herod birthday banquet gives oaths whatever Herodias daughter asks even up half kingdom she asks for head John Baptist platter reluctantly king sends executioner brings head John platter gives girl girl gives mother when disciples hear this they come take body lay it tomb (Mark 6:14-29).

3rd Paragraph: When apostles return they report all have done taught then retreat deserted place rest but many recognize them run foot from all towns get there ahead them when lands sees large crowd has compassion on them because they were like sheep without shepherd so begins teach many things as day nearly over disciples suggest send crowd away buy themselves something eat but instead says give something eat themselves taking five loaves two fish looking up heaven gave thanks broke loaves gave disciples set before people also divided two fish among all ate were satisfied twelve basketfuls broken pieces bread fish left over number men ate about five thousand (Mark 6:30-44). Afterward makes disciples get into boat go ahead Bethsaida while dismisses crowd after leaving prays mountainside evening comes boat middle lake he alone land sees disciples straining rowing wind against shortly before dawn comes towards walking lake intends pass by see terrified say it's ghost cry out immediately talks takes courage says "Do not be afraid" then climbs into boat wind dies completely astonished have understood about loaves hearts were hardened later cross over land Gennesaret moor boat people recognize bring sick mats wherever hear he is beg let

But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. Luke 3 focuses on the ministry of John the Baptist and his role in preparing the way for Jesus' public ministry. It also provides a genealogy of Jesus, tracing His lineage back to Adam.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins by introducing John the Baptist, who came preaching in the wilderness. He called people to repentance and baptized them as a symbol of their repentance and readiness for the coming of the Messiah (Luke 3:1-6). Luke provides a detailed account of John's message, highlighting his fiery rebuke towards religious leaders and his call for people to bear fruits worthy of repentance. The crowds asked him what they should do, and he gave practical instructions such as sharing with those in need, treating others fairly, and not exploiting their positions (Luke 3:7-14).

2nd Paragraph: Luke then mentions Herod Antipas, who was ruling over Galilee at that time. John publicly criticized Herod for his unlawful marriage to Herodias, his brother's wife. This led to John's arrest and imprisonment by Herod (Luke 3:19-20). After this account, Luke provides a genealogy of Jesus Christ tracing His ancestry back through David all the way to Adam. This emphasizes Jesus' connection to humanity as well as His rightful place in fulfilling God's promises through His lineage (Luke 3:23-38).

3rd Paragraph: The chapter concludes with an important event—the baptism of Jesus by John in the Jordan River. As Jesus was praying after His baptism, heaven opened up, and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove. A voice from heaven declared, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased" (Luke 3:21-22). This marked the beginning of Jesus' public ministry as He was anointed by God's Spirit and affirmed as God's Son. Through these events recorded in Luke 3, we see both John's preparation work for Jesus' ministry and the divine confirmation of Jesus' identity and mission.

Then, Satan showed Jesus all the kingdoms of the world and offered Him authority over them if He would worship him. However, Jesus rebuked Satan again with Scripture: "You shall worship the Lord your God and him only shall you serve" (Luke 4:5-8). Finally, Satan took Jesus to Jerusalem's pinnacle and urged Him to throw Himself down, quoting Scripture out of context. Yet again, Jesus countered with Scripture and resisted temptation (Luke 4:9-13).

Though one may be overpowered, two can defend themselves. A cord of three strands is not quickly broken.”

2. Hebrews 4:14-16 - “Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. Let us then approach God’s throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.”

The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.)

When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only? And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house. And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.)

Luke 6 details significant teachings and events in Jesus' ministry, including His actions on the Sabbath, the selection of His twelve apostles, and the delivery of the Sermon on the Plain.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with two Sabbath controversies. In one incident, Jesus and His disciples were walking through grain fields on a Sabbath day. The disciples picked some heads of grain to eat, which Pharisees criticized as unlawful on a Sabbath. Jesus defended them by referencing an Old Testament event involving David when he was hungry (Luke 6:1-5). In another incident in a synagogue on a Sabbath day, Jesus healed a man with a shriveled hand despite opposition from religious leaders who were watching to see if He would break their interpretation of Sabbath laws (Luke 6:6-11).

2nd Paragraph: After these incidents, Jesus spent an entire night in prayer before selecting twelve out of all His disciples to be apostles (Luke 6:12-16). These men were Simon Peter, Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew/Nathanael, Matthew/Levi (a tax collector), Thomas/Doubting Thomas ("the Twin"), James son of Alphaeus/Less or Younger or Minor or Little James or James the Less or Younger James/Jacobus minor/James Minor/Younger Jacobus/Iacobus Minor/Jacobus Less/Jacobus Little/Iakobos Mikros/Iakobos Mikroteros/Iakobos ho mikros/Jacobus Minimus/Yaakov HaKat'an/Yaakov Katan/James son of Mary/Mary's son James/Mary's son Jacobus/Son Mary Yakov/Son Mary Yaakov/Son Mary Iakovos/Son Mary Iakobos/Son Mary Jacob/Mariam's Son Jacob/Mariam's Son Yakov/Mariam's Son Iakovos/Mariam's Son Iakobos/Yeshua bar Miriam/Yeshu'a bar Miriam/Jesus bar Miriam/Yehoshua bar Miriam/Brother Yeshua/Brother Yehoshua/Brother Yeshu'a/Brother Jesus/The Brother Lord/The Lord Brother/The Lord Brethren/The Brethren Lord/Holy Brother/Holy Brethren/Holy Brethren God/God Holy Brethren/God Holy Brother/Holy Brothers God/God Holy Brothers/God Brothers Holinesses/Brethren Holinesses God/God Brethren Holinesses/Brethren God Holinesses/Holinesses God Brothers/Holinesses God Brethren/Tzaddik/Tzaddiq/Zaddik/Zaddiq/Apostle Zaddikim/Apostle Zaddiqim/Apostle Tzadokites/Apostle Tzedukim/Apostle Saducee/Apostle Saducean/Apostle Tsadokite Zealot/Tsadoqite Zealot/Zealot Tsadoqite/Zealot Tsadokite/Tsadokite Zealot/Zelotes/Zelotes Saddoukaios/Zelotes Saddoukaíos/Zelotes Saddoukaios/Saddoukaíos Zelotes/Saddoukaios Zelotes/Sadducæus Zelotes/Zelotes Sadducæus/Zealot of the Tsadokites/Zealot of the Tsadoqites/Tsadoqite Zealots/Tsadokite Zealots/Tsadokim Zealots/Tsadoqim Zealots/Sadducean Zealots/Saducean Zealots, Simon the Cananaean (Simon who was called the zealot), Thaddeus/Judas son of James/Judas not Iscariot, and Judas Iscariot who would later betray Him. He then descended from the mountain and was surrounded by a large crowd from Judea, Jerusalem, Tyre, and Sidon. They came to hear His teaching and be healed of their diseases. Jesus also cast out evil spirits (Luke 6:17-19).

3rd Paragraph: In this crowd-filled setting, Jesus delivered a sermon similar to Matthew's Sermon on the Mount known as Sermon on Plain in Luke. This sermon included blessings for poor hungry weeping hated excluded insulted rejected because Son Man great reward heaven woes rich full laughing spoken well all people words echo prophetic tradition Old Testament challenge societal norms values (Luke 6:20-26). Jesus continued with teachings about loving enemies doing good without expecting return being merciful as Father merciful not judging or condemning others forgiving those wrong us giving generously (Luke 6:27-38). He concluded with parables about blind leading blind student becoming like teacher good tree producing good fruit bad tree bad fruit importance putting His words into practice like wise man building house solid foundation withstand storm unlike foolish man built house ground without foundation which could not stand against storm (Luke 6:39-49). These teachings emphasized radical love mercy forgiveness central tenets Christian ethics discipleship.

1. Matthew 22:37-40 - “Jesus said to him, ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’”

2. 1 John 4:20-21 - “If someone says, ‘I love God,’ and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also.”

Luke 10:28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."

Luke 10:30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

A certain man went from Jerusalem to Jericho and was attacked by robbers, leaving him half dead.

1: We must have compassion on those in need, just as the Good Samaritan did.

2: We can learn from the story of the Good Samaritan to put others first.

1: Matthew 22:37-40 - "Jesus said to him, “ ‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

2: James 2:14-17 - "What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, “Depart in peace, be warmed and filled,” but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

Luke 10:31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

The priest passed by on the other side when he saw a man in need.

Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food. If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it? In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Luke 10:34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

A Samaritan helps a man who has been wounded by robbers by binding his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them, and bringing him to an inn to care for him.

1) Devotion to Hearing Jesus' Teachings is Paramount

2) Mary's Example of Listening to Jesus' Teachings is Inspiring

1) James 1:22-25 - But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.

Are you not much more valuable than they? Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?"

Some in the crowd accused Him of casting out demons by Beelzebul (Satan), but He refuted this by saying that if Satan is divided against himself then his kingdom cannot stand. Luke 11:24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

The unclean spirit, when expelled from man, seeks out a new place to inhabit but is unable to find rest and thus returns to the person it came from.

Luke 11:30 For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

Jesus is a sign to this generation, just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites.

1. Jesus is the Fulfillment of the Old Testament Prophecies

2. Hope in Jesus for a New Generation

1. Jonah 1:1-3, “Now the word of the Lord came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ‘Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil has come up before me.’ But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the Lord. Luke 11:31 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

God's wisdom is greater than any wisdom found on earth.

1: Seek God's Wisdom Above All Others

2: The Queen of the South Shows Us the Importance of Seeking God's Wisdom

Luke 11:32 The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

God's judgment of this generation will come from comparison to the repentance of the Ninevites in response to the preaching of Jonah.

1: We must humble ourselves and repent for our sins in order to receive God's grace.

2: We must remember God's judgment of this generation will come from comparing it to the repentance of the Ninevites in response to Jonah's preaching.

1: Joel 2:12-13 "Yet even now," declares the Lord, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments." Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

2: Isaiah 55:6-7 Seek the Lord while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

Luke 11:33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

Jesus encourages people to share the light of knowledge and truth, so that those who come in may benefit from it.

2. Proverbs 4:18 “But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn, which shines brighter and brighter until full day.”

Luke 11:34 The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

Jesus teaches that if the eye is good, the entire body will be full of light, but if the eye is evil, the whole body will be filled with darkness.

1. Seeing with the Eyes of Faith

2. Walking in the Light of God's Word

1. Ephesians 5:8 - For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

2. Matthew 6:22-23 - The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness.

Jesus warns his followers to make sure that the light within them is not replaced by darkness.

2. Philippians 2:15-16 – “That you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, holding fast to the word of life.”

Luke 11:36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

Jesus teaches that if our whole body is full of light, it will be illuminated just like a candle gives light.

1. John 13:12-17 - Jesus washing his disciples’ feet as a demonstration of love and humility.

2. Mark 7:1-5 - Jesus criticizing the Pharisees for their emphasis on ritual washing rather than the importance of inner purity.

Luke 11:39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

The Lord rebuked the Pharisees for having a hypocritical nature.

1: We must look within ourselves and ensure our hearts are pure and free from wickedness.

2: We must strive to be authentic in our faith and practice what we preach.

1: Matthew 15:8-10 “These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. They worship me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules.”

2: James 1:26-27 “If anyone considers himself religious and yet does not keep a tight rein on his tongue, he deceives himself and his religion is worthless. Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.”

Luke 11:40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

Jesus rebukes the Pharisees for not understanding that God created both the external and internal aspects of humans.

Jesus encourages his followers to give charity and to recognize that God will forgive them.

2. From Unclean to Clean: The Power of Forgiveness

1. Matthew 6:1-4 - “Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.”

2. James 2:15-17 - “If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.”

Luke 11:42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

This verse speaks of the Pharisees’ failure to prioritize spiritual matters over following the letter of the law.

1: We must prioritize our spiritual life and seek to serve God with our whole heart, not just our actions.

2: We must not forget to show love to our fellow man, for it is through our love that we show our devotion to God.

1: Matthew 22:37-40 - Jesus said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.’ This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

2: Deuteronomy 10:12-13 - And now, Israel, what does the Lord your God require of you, but to fear the Lord your God, to walk in all His ways and to love Him, to serve the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, and to keep the commandments of the Lord and His statutes which I command you today for your good?

Luke 11:43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

The Pharisees are reprimanded for their love of being in positions of honor, and for seeking recognition in public spaces.

1: The Lord's message to the Pharisees is to instead seek honor in humility.

2: We should not be motivated by recognition but instead seek to serve others humbly.

1: Matthew 23:12 - "And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted."

2: Philippians 2:3 - "Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves."

Luke 11:44 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

Jesus criticizes the scribes and Pharisees for their hypocrisy.

1: We must be honest in our faith and not just go through the motions.

2: We must be careful to never become complacent in our faith and not just go through the motions.

1: Matthew 23:27-28 - “Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like whitewashed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and everything unclean. In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.”

2: Isaiah 29:13 - “These people come near to me with their mouth and honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. Their worship of me is based on merely human rules they have been taught.”

Luke 11:45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

A lawyer rebukes Jesus for accusing the lawyers and scribes of hypocrisy.

2. The hypocrisy of those who refuse to assist those in need.

1. James 2:14-17 - For if a man with gold rings and in fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, “Sit here in a good place,” while you say to the poor man, “Stand there,” or, “Sit at my feet,” have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

2. Matthew 25:31-46 - "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.

Luke 11:47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

The passage condemns those who build monuments to prophets that their ancestors killed.

1. We must remember the prophets and learn from their teachings rather than simply honoring them with monuments.

2. We must be careful not to repeat the mistakes of our ancestors and instead strive for righteousness.

1. Matthew 5:7 - "Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy."

2. James 2:13 - "For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment."

Luke 11:52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

The lawyers had taken away the key of knowledge and were preventing others from gaining it.

1: We should not prevent others from gaining knowledge, but instead aid them in their journey.

2: We need to remember to stay humble when we have knowledge, and not keep it to ourselves.

2. Proverbs 16:18 "Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

Luke 12 features Jesus' teachings on hypocrisy, worry, wealth, watchfulness, and division.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus warning His disciples about the hypocrisy of the Pharisees and encouraging them not to fear those who can kill the body but cannot do more. Instead, they should fear God who has authority over both body and soul (Luke 12:1-7). He also emphasized that whoever acknowledges Him before others will be acknowledged before God's angels. However, those who deny Him will be denied (Luke 12:8-12). In response to a man's request for Jesus to tell his brother to divide the family inheritance with him, Jesus warned against all kinds of greed and told a parable about a rich fool who stored up wealth for himself but was not rich towards God (Luke 12:13-21).

2nd Paragraph: Following this teaching on greed, Jesus turned to His disciples and encouraged them not to worry about life's necessities because God knows their needs. Instead of worrying about material things they should seek God’s kingdom these things will be given as well (Luke 12:22-31). He assured them it is Father’s good pleasure give kingdom thus need fear little flock rather sell possessions give alms provide purses don’t wear out unfailing treasure heaven where no thief comes near moth destroys where your treasure there your heart also emphasizing priority spiritual eternal values over temporal material ones (Luke 12:32-34).

3rd Paragraph: The latter part of Luke 12 focuses on watchfulness readiness for Son Man’s coming which compared unexpected arrival thief night or master returning wedding banquet servants need always ready waiting master’s return blessed are those whom master finds alert when he comes (Luke 12:35-40). Peter asked whether parable meant just disciples or everyone answered another parable faithful wise manager whom master puts charge his servants give them food at proper time contrasted wicked servant says heart ‘My master taking long time coming’ starts beat menservants maidservants eat drink get drunk if that servant's master comes day when does not expect him hour unaware cut pieces assign place unfaithful indicating serious consequences unfaithfulness unpreparedness Lord's return further emphasized division His message would bring even within families underlining cost commitment following Him finally concluded signs times people ability interpret weather signs but failure interpret present time warning heed signs recognize urgent need repentance readiness Kingdom God.

Luke 12:1 In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

Luke 12:3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

People should be cautious of what they say as it will be heard and may be repeated.

1: Speak Life, Not Death - Words have the power to build up or tear down. Choose words that bring life and edify others.

2: Be Careful What You Say - Be mindful of the words that come out of your mouth, as they will be heard and repeated.

1: Proverbs 18:21 - Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.

2: James 3:5-10 - Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

Luke 12:4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

Are you not much more valuable than they? 27 Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life[d]?

28 “And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. 30 If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? 31 So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ 32 For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. 33 But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. 34 Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Luke 13 features Jesus' teachings on repentance, the Kingdom of God, and healing on the Sabbath, as well as His lament over Jerusalem.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with people telling Jesus about Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. In response, Jesus pointed out that those who suffered such tragedies were not worse sinners than others. He emphasized that unless they repented, they too would perish (Luke 13:1-5). He then told a parable about a barren fig tree. The owner wanted to cut it down because it wasn't bearing fruit but the gardener asked for one more year to fertilize and care for it before making that decision (Luke 13:6-9). This parable underscores God's patience and desire for repentance.

2nd Paragraph: On a Sabbath day in synagogue, Jesus healed a woman who had been crippled by a spirit for eighteen years. The synagogue leader was indignant because Jesus healed on the Sabbath but Jesus rebuked him saying "You hypocrites! Doesn’t each of you on the Sabbath untie your ox or donkey from the stall and lead it out to give it water? Then should not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan has kept bound for eighteen long years, be set free on the Sabbath day from what bound her?" All his opponents were humiliated but people delighted all wonderful things he was doing (Luke 13:10-17).

3rd Paragraph: After this incident, Jesus spoke two parables about kingdom God first compared mustard seed which smallest seeds yet when fully grown becomes large enough birds nest its branches second yeast mixed into large amount flour until whole dough leavened These parables illustrate dynamic growth pervasive influence Kingdom despite small seemingly insignificant beginnings (Luke 13:18-21). Acts 2:38 - Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 13:2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

In response, Jesus told Parable Lost Sheep where shepherd leaves ninety-nine sheep in open country to search for one lost sheep. When he finds it, he joyfully puts it on his shoulders and goes home. Then he calls his friends neighbors together says 'Rejoice me I have found my lost sheep.' Jesus then explains that there is more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who do not need to repent (Luke 15:1-7).

2nd Paragraph: Following this parable, Jesus told another parable about a woman who had ten silver coins but lost one. She lights a lamp, sweeps her house thoroughly until she finds it. Upon finding it, she calls her friends neighbors together says 'Rejoice me I have found my lost coin.' Again Jesus emphasized that there is rejoicing in presence angels God over one sinner who repents (Luke 15:8-10).

3rd Paragraph: Lastly, He shared the Parable of the Prodigal Son. In this story, a younger son asks for his share of inheritance from his father and then squanders all in wild living far-off country. When severe famine arose he began be need so hired himself out citizen that country sent him fields feed pigs longed fill stomach pods pigs were eating no one gave him anything when came senses said 'How many my father's hired servants have food spare here am starving death!' Luke 16 contains Jesus' teachings on stewardship, wealth, and the afterlife, including the Parable of the Shrewd Manager and the Parable of Lazarus and the Rich Man.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus telling His disciples the Parable of the Shrewd Manager. In this parable, a rich man's manager was accused of wasting his possessions. When he learned that he was about to lose his job, he called each of his master's debtors and reduced their debts so that they would welcome him into their homes when he lost his position. The master commended him for acting shrewdly. Jesus used this parable to teach His disciples to use worldly wealth to gain friends for themselves so that when it is gone, they will be welcomed into eternal dwellings (Luke 16:1-9). He further emphasized that whoever can be trusted with little can also be trusted with much, but whoever is dishonest with little will also be dishonest with much (Luke 16:10-12).

2nd Paragraph: Continuing His teaching on wealth and stewardship, Jesus said "No servant can serve two masters. Either you will hate one love other or you will be devoted one despise other cannot serve both God money." Pharisees who loved money heard all this were sneering at Him but He told them what highly valued among people detestable in God's sight (Luke 16:13-15). Then He pointed out law prophets were proclaimed until John since then good news kingdom God being preached everyone forcing way into it easier heaven earth disappear than least stroke letter law drop out indicating enduring nature God's word moral standards (Luke 16:16-18).

3rd Paragraph: Lastly in this chapter, Jesus told Parable Lazarus Rich Man illustrating consequences choices related wealth compassion afterlife poor man named Lazarus covered sores laid at gate rich man hoping eat what fell from rich man’s table even dogs came licked his sores time came Lazarus died angels carried him Abraham’s side rich man also died buried hell where suffering looked up saw Abraham far off Lazarus by side called 'Father Abraham have pity me send Lazarus dip tip finger water cool my tongue because I am agony fire.' But Abraham replied 'Son remember lifetime received good things while Lazarus received bad things now comforted here you are agony besides all between us you great chasm has been set place those want go from here cannot nor anyone cross over us.' Then rich man asked father send Lazarus warn five brothers so they not come place torment but Abraham said 'They have Moses Prophets let them listen them.' 'No father Abraham,' he said 'but if someone from dead goes them they will repent.' But replied 'If do not listen Moses Prophets neither will they convinced if someone rises from dead' (Luke 16:19-31). This story starkly contrasts eternal destinies based earthly attitudes behaviors particularly towards material possessions treatment less fortunate also underscores importance responding God's revelation scriptures rather seeking spectacular signs miracles.

Luke 16:1 And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

Luke 17 includes Jesus' teachings on forgiveness, faith, service, and the coming of the Kingdom of God. It also contains the account of Jesus healing ten lepers.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus warning His disciples about causing others to sin. He advised them that it would be better to have a millstone hung around their neck and be thrown into the sea than to cause a little one to stumble (Luke 17:1-2). He also instructed them on the importance of rebuking a brother or sister who sins and forgiving them when they repent, even if it happens seven times in a day (Luke 17:3-4). When His disciples asked Him to increase their faith, He told them that if they had faith as small as a mustard seed, they could command a mulberry tree to be uprooted and planted in the sea and it would obey (Luke 17:5-6).

2nd Paragraph: Continuing His teaching with His disciples, Jesus talked about duty using an analogy of servants who have worked all day in field or tending sheep are then expected prepare supper for their master before eating resting themselves. In response Pharisees’ question about when kingdom God would come replied kingdom God not something observed nor people say ‘Here it is’ ‘There it is’ because kingdom God within among you indicating spiritual nature Kingdom rather than physical geographical realm (Luke 17:20-21). Luke 18 contains Jesus' teachings on prayer, humility, and the cost of following Him. It includes the Parables of the Persistent Widow and the Pharisee and Tax Collector, as well as Jesus' interaction with a rich ruler and His prediction of His death.

1st Paragraph: The chapter begins with Jesus telling His disciples a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up. In this parable, a persistent widow keeps coming to an unjust judge demanding justice against her adversary. Though initially reluctant, the judge eventually grants her justice so she will not wear him out by her persistence. Jesus uses this story to encourage persistent prayer and faith in God's ultimate justice (Luke 18:1-8). He then tells another parable about two men who went up to the temple to pray - one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee proudly thanked God he was not like other people—robbers, evildoers, adulterers—or even like this tax collector while tax collector stood at distance would not even look up heaven but beat his breast said 'God have mercy me sinner.' Jesus commended humility tax collector over self-righteousness Pharisee stating everyone exalts himself will be humbled whoever humbles himself will be exalted (Luke 18:9-14).

2nd Paragraph: People were also bringing babies to Jesus for Him to touch them but when disciples saw it they rebuked them but Jesus called children come him said 'Let little children come me do not hinder them kingdom God belongs such these Truly I tell you anyone who will not receive kingdom God like little child never enter it' emphasizing need childlike faith humility enter Kingdom (Luke 18:15-17). A certain ruler then asked Him what he must do inherit eternal life which led discussion commandments ruler claimed kept since youth however when told sell everything had give poor have treasure heaven follow Him became very sad because was very wealthy illustrating challenge riches pose true discipleship commitment Kingdom (Luke 18:18-25). When disciples questioned who can saved response difficulty rich entering kingdom God replied what impossible humans possible God indicating salvation ultimately divine act grace beyond human effort achievement (Luke 18:26-27).

3rd Paragraph: Peter then pointed out that they had left all they had to follow Him. To which Jesus responded saying truly there is no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for sake kingdom God who will fail receive many times as much in this age in age come eternal life reaffirming rewards sacrifices made for sake Kingdom both present future life (Luke 18:28-30). As journeyed towards Jerusalem He took Twelve aside told them everything written Prophets about Son Man would be fulfilled including being handed over Gentiles mocked insulted spit on flogged killed third day rise again yet despite explicit prediction they failed understand meaning these things because was hidden from them did not know what He talking about indicating their limited understanding unfolding messianic mission at time(Luke 18:31-34). Lastly chapter ends with healing blind beggar near Jericho cried out 'Jesus Son David have mercy me!' Despite people rebuking him keep quiet shouted all more 'Son David have mercy me!' Jesus stopped ordered man be brought him asked him what he wanted. He said 'Lord I want see.' Jesus said to him 'Receive your sight your faith has healed you.' Immediately he received his sight followed Jesus praising God all people saw it gave praise God signifying divine messianic authority over physical afflictions power faith bring about healing (Luke 18:35-43).

2. Romans 12:19-21 - “Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave it to the wrath of God, for it is written, “Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord.” To the contrary, “if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head.” Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.
